NWIL Missionary

Rev. Irene Lewis-Wimbley is a 2011 graduate of the Nazarene Bible College with a BA in Pastoral Studies, and has 11 years of experience in the social work field. Irene went into full-time ministry in 2016. Irene graduated from Olivet Nazarene University with a Master's degree in Pastoral Leadership and was ordained in the spring of 2018. Irene relocated to Peoria's Southside with her two daughters Lyric and Trinity, from Sterling, Illinois. Irene is the Director of Southside Community Center (SCC) located on the Southside of Peoria where she lives. Irene's vision when she moved to Peoria was to make a greater kingdom impact in the Southside community of Peoria. At SCC they believe that the community can be transformed one relationship at a time. The team at SCC have worked hard to create a safe place where local friends and neighbors can go to be encouraged and find a vision for their lives.
