CONGREGATIONAL
Vote at PFN & Summit

Sunday Morning, June 1
during the 9:30<sup>AM</sup> Worship Service

The NWIL District Superintendent, Rev. Lloyd Brock, and our PFN Church Board are pleased to announce an upcoming congregational vote for the PFN Lead Pastor position. The vote will take place on Sunday morning, June 1, 2025, during the 9:30<sup>AM</sup> Worship Service at PFN and simultaneously during the Sunday School time at Summit. The member vote will be open to any PFN or Summit member age 15 and older. There will also be an opportunity for regular attenders to participate in the vote.

According to the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene, absentee voting is not permitted, so you must be present to vote.

No candidate name will be given today. More details will be provided on May 25 and June 1. This is a historic moment for PFN and the PFN Network, and we encourage everyone to mark their calendars and prayerfully prepare for this significant day. Join us as we seek God's direction and wisdom in this process. Thank you.
